DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

1. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

2. Claims 11, 14-18 and 20-23 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Hashish et al (USPN 4,648,215). Hashish et al discloses an apparatus for generating a high velocity cutting jet 50 comprising means for forming a high velocity jet of liquid water, means 39 for forming a suspension of an abrasive material, means for entraining the suspension into the jet of liquid comprising abrasive material and liquid water, a restricted orifice 37 for forming a high velocity jet 50, a nozzle 46 having elongated bore extending between inlet and outlet, a chamber disposed between the orifice 37 and the nozzle 46, a frustoconical transition zone 44 connecting the chamber 38 to the inlet of the nozzle 46 (note Fig. 5, col., lines 22-58).

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

3. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

4. Claim 19 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Hashish et al in view of Mass et al (USPN 6,425,805). Hashish et al discloses the claimed invention as described above, Hashish et al does not disclose the nozzle comprises a plurality of nozzle sections. Massa et al discloses a nozzle comprises a plurality of nozzle sections (note Fig. 7, lines 19-54). It would have been obvious to one having ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to modify the apparatus of Hashish et al with the nozzle disclosed by Massa et al in order to extend the service life of the nozzle.

Allowable Subject Matter

5. Claims 1-4 and 8-10 are allowed.

Response to Arguments

6. Applicant's arguments with respect to claims 11 and 14-23 have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection.

Conclusion

7. Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

8. A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
